THE FRIGATE CONSTELLATION.
The following paragraph, received since the intelligence in the preceding columns was prepared, would seem to prove conclusively that the reported disaster to the Constellation is without any foundation wastever:

From the Philadelphia Chronicle.
There can be no truth in the report of the loss of the Constellation frighte, which seems to have excited a strong sensition both here and in New York. We have now before us a letter written on board the ship of the Isl and of Cengo, on the 18th of last October, by Mr. William Barclay, of this city, whose the figure is that of Captaia's Clerk. The account of the disaster was brought to the confidence of the United States, coefficient in the fregate is that of Captaia's Clerk.
